23. In considering any representations or a notice made by any party, the Committee may take into account documentary or other information produced by a party in support of their application, representations or notice (as the case may be) either before the hearing or, with the consent of all the other parties, at the hearing.
24. The Committee shall disregard any information given by a party or by any person to whom permission to appear at the hearing is given by the Committee, which is not relevant to:
  - (i) their application, representations or a notice (as the case may be) or, in the case of another person, the application, representations or notice of the party requesting their attendance; and
  - (ii) the promotion of the licensing objectives or, in relation to a hearing to consider a notice given by a chief officer of police, the prevention of crime and disorder licensing objective.

NB Parties are reminded that any documentary or other information or evidence they wish to produce in support of their application or representation must have been disclosed to all parties prior to the hearing taking place. Late representations, documents or evidence will only be considered with the agreement of all parties present.

25. The Committee will return to announce its decision. A written notice of the decision will be provided to all parties in accordance with statutory requirements. The decision letter will include the reasons for the decision, and any conditions placed upon the licence (if granted) and the licensing objective(s) they relate to. The notification of decision will include information on a party's right to appeal against the Committee's decision.

General Matters

1. Expectations on parties

The Licensing Authority expects all parties to a hearing to endeavour to address any issues openly and to work towards an amicable resolution, if at all possible, prior to the hearing taking place.

All parties will be expected to:

- (i) demonstrate which of the four licensing objectives are addressed in relation to each of the issues they wish to raise at the hearing; and
- (ii) draw to the Committee's attention any relevant aspects of the National Guidance or local Statement of Licensing Policy which they also consider are particularly relevant to the Committee's consideration of the issues the party(ies) has/have raised.

2. Agreement that a hearing is unnecessary

A Licensing Authority can dispense with holding a hearing if all persons concerned (applicants and parties raising a representation) give notice to the Licensing Authority prior to the hearing date that they consider it unnecessary.

Where all such persons have given such notice, and the Licensing Authority agrees that a hearing is unnecessary, the Licensing Authority will give notice to the parties that the hearing has been dispensed with.

3. Failure of parties to attend

The hearing may proceed in the absence of any party who has informed the Licensing Authority that they do not intend to attend or be represented at the hearing.

If a party fails to attend or be represented at a hearing without notifying the Licensing Authority, the Committee may adjourn the hearing to a specific date if it considers it to be in the public interest to do so, or alternatively may proceed with the hearing in the party's absence. In the interests of the other parties, costs and efficiency, hearings will generally proceed notwithstanding the absence of any party (including the Applicant).

Where it is decided to proceed in a party's absence, all notices and representations received from the absent party will be considered by the Committee.

If, in exceptional circumstances, a decision is made to adjourn a hearing all parties will be advised of the date, time and venue to which the hearing has been adjourned.

4. Questioning of parties

The Licensing Authority will generally allow all parties to ask questions of another party present, but this decision will be taken on a case by case basis and in some exceptional circumstances (a reason will be given) cross examination may be prohibited.

5. Further clarification
When addressing the Committee each party shall respond specifically to any points of which it received notice (with the Notice of Hearing) upon which the Committee was seeking clarification.
6. Questioning by Legal Adviser
The legal adviser to the Committee may ask questions on behalf of, or in addition to, the Committee members themselves.
7. Hearsay evidence
Hearsay evidence will be admissible provided that it is relevant. The weight to be attributed to hearsay evidence will be a matter for the Committee.
8. Persons behaving in a disruptive manner
The Committee has the right to exclude any person disrupting the hearing, at their discretion. The Committee can refuse to allow that person to return or, alternatively, may permit him/her to return on such conditions as the Committee may decide. Any person required to leave the hearing may, before the end of the hearing, submit to the Committee in writing any information which they would have been entitled to give orally had they not been required to leave.
9. No decision-making by Ward Members
A member of the Licensing Committee shall not be entitled to participate in any decision-making in relation to any licensing application concerning premises in the Ward for which he/she serves as Councillor.

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
  - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
  - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
  - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
    - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
    - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
    - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
    - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

I object to the above application on the following grounds:-

- * the rear wall is adjacent to 15 bedrooms in our building. The noise from the premises will impact those sleeping. We can already hear the music from the gym further up the street which starts at 6.30am.
- * there are only industrial units on Northumberland Street. Granting of this application will create a precedent.
- * the discharge of people from the premises late night/early morning will cause nuisance and disturbance to local residents.
- * the area is already well provided with venues for music.

To Whom It May Concern

We would like to lodge our concerns that the introduction of the consumption of alcohol and or music may cause a nuisance to our business and domestic premises which is directly adjacent to 16 East Percy Street, the proposed outdoor storage / sitting area.

The noise created from a sitting / storage area with possible music during opening times, is of serious concern to our adjacent office and domestic premises.

8 We would also like to clarify, that the metre between our offices and the proposed sitting / storage area is part of our land and nothing must be constructed or placed within that metre.

Yours faithfully

FAO The Licensing Section

I would like to raise concerns in regard to the application for a new premises license at 3 Northumberland Street.

I have also recently been granted planning permission for the development of residential premises within the building in which I intend to live.

My concerns are as follows:

1/ The predominant use and character of Northumberland Street is light industrial, with a great deal of heavy traffic using the street for delivery and loading from the various premises, in particular at Percy Hudson's Timber next door to No 3, and including my own at Light House Arts Space just two doors down. Combining the sale of alcohol to the public during the working hours of these premises will represent a risk to the public and an unacceptable liability for the business owners in managing the safety of persons under the influence of alcohol present in the comings and goings of a busy industrial environment.

2/ Due to the busy day time conditions of the street, access by car and parking is already difficult. Granting this license will potentially cause a substantial increase in demand for space which cannot be presently accommodated, causing conflicts of interest between current business owners and employees, their customers, and the visitors of the licensed premises.

3/ The licence application includes permission for films, live music and recorded music and the serving of late night refreshment until 23.00 Sunday to Thursday, and until midnight on Friday to Saturday. If granted this license will enable considerable disturbance of the peaceful evening and weekend enjoyment of the residential apartment for which I have been granted planning permission.

4/ The area of Northumberland Street sustains a mixed economy of industrial, motor, and arts and crafts, sales and production, providing employment and business opportunities to many in the heart of North Shields. The granting of the license as requested in the application will undermine the opportunities for these productive jobs in the area, by converting the use of the premises to alcohol sales and entertainment, which has its place in the leisure orientated districts of North Shields Town Centre, on the Fish Quay or the newly designated Culture Quarter, but not in the middle of a busy and productive industrial and creative area.

Regards

Dear Sirs

I would like to object to the alcohol and late music licence on the following grounds:

- North Tyneside Council is trying to create an Ambition for North Shields which means an increase in residential properties in our area
- The area is becoming increasingly built up so any loud sounds reverberate heavily
- We are a mixed community of families with young children, working professionals and retired – all of whom have a right to rest and sleep
- Currently we have been living with the building works in Walker Place which has run a loud generator consistently from 8-4 pm for nearly THREE YEARS – nerves are frayed
- The music from the Low Lights, 3 Tanners Bank and The Engine Room is already so loud it can be heard above our own music/tv entertainment, with our windows closed (and they are triple glazed)
- Such events attract drinking punters – it only takes 3 people to make an intrusive noise once they have had a few drinks – this is a disturbance throughout the evening not just at closing time
- Revellers then seem to think it is acceptable to urinate up the walls of our building on the way home
- The Gym at Unit 2 is not insulated and plays loud throbbing music from 6 am some mornings – we have tried to ask them to be more considerate of local people who sleep within yards of the gym’s rear wall
- Additional traffic due to diversions from Bird Street creates extra noise and pollution
- The council’s consistent refusal to address the additional noise, road rage and pollution created by not installing double yellow lines on Brewhouse Bank – mainly occurring on Sundays.
- The Ambition for North Shields risks losing its early adopters as the place becomes difficult to function in due to limited sleep.

For a new establishment to be acceptable it would be reasonable to:

- Reduce the number of evenings it is open with loud music
- Reduce the hours – it is not necessary to go beyond 11 pm – local residents have a right to get to sleep – especially as work patterns dictate an early start every day
- Expect the council to ask all properties to fit proper acoustic insulation to prevent the noise travelling outside the premises – this property is as close to us as the crow flies as all the others that already disturb us

Thank you for your consideration.
