LICENSING OBJECTIVES

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e)

List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

* The premises will operate as a high-end Turkish style restaurant with bar area on the ground floor. The first floor of the premises will comprise of numerous office spaces and rental units which will be rented out to the likes of artists and interior designers for example. The second floor of the premises will be more of an empty space which will be hired for courses, training, exams, book readings, seminars, yoga sessions or pilates sessions, anything that will follow the similar branding of the premises being arts and culture. There will be no change to the operating style of the premises without prior written notice to the Licensing Authority, which shall include details of the proposed operating style of the premises. The Licensing Authority shall advise within 21 days whether a formal application for variation or a new application is required and the licence holder shall comply with that direction.

* The operator shall ensure that at all times when the premises are open for any licensable activity there are sufficient competent staff on duty at the premises for the purposes of fulfilling the terms and conditions of the Licensing Act and for preventing crime and disorder.

* A substantial food offering will be available at all times the premises are open for trading.

* A maximum of 20% of the restaurant area on the ground floor would be utilised for drinks only and there will be a small area set aside for drinks only within this restaurant area.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

* A CCTV system shall be designed, installed and maintained in proper working order to the satisfaction of the Licensing Authority and in consultation with Northumbria Police. Such a system shall be operated by properly trained staff, be in operation at all times that the premises are being used for licensable activities, ensure coverage of all entrances and exits to the licensed premises and provide continuous recording facilities for each camera to a good standard of clarity for 28 days. Each camera shall record a minimum of 4 frames per second.

* An incident book will be kept up to date at the premises and will be available for inspection by the Police or Licensing Officers with reasonable request.

c) Public safety

* The operator and designated premises supervisor shall conduct a risk assessment for the general operation of the premises and in the case of individual bespoke events. Such risk assessments will include details of the events, who is the person in charge of the event, the level of door staff and external security companies used, dispersal policies etc and shall be made available to the Police or Licensing Authority on request.

* The maximum number of persons permitted on the premises at any one time shall not exceed a figure prescribed by the fire risk assessments completed by the Fire Authority from time to time or in the absence of a prescribed figure, in accordance with regular fire risk assessments and which is reasonable and reflects the maximum safety capacity as prescribed by the Fire Authority guidance from time to time.

* The premises licence holder shall ensure that all relevant members of staff receive training in their responsibilities under the Licensing Act 2003. Such training will be documented and records shall be made available upon lawful request from the Police or authorised officers of the Licensing Authority. Training records will be updated every six months.

* Waiter and waitress service will be provided throughout the premises for all orders of food and drinks in the restaurant areas of the premises only affording control and supervision.

* SIA door supervisors will be employed at the discretion of the management particularly if they envisage busier periods of trade i.e. bank holidays or when pre booked events are taking place. However, the premises will predominately be a restaurant.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

- * Prior to commencing operation of the premises under the premises licence for its proposed use a detailed noise survey and/or scheme for the sound insulation of the premises will be conducted by an independent noise assessment expert who has been employed by the premises licence holder. Lobby doors are also being installed within the premises. The majority of the premises will have double glazing installed and in some areas triple glazing.
- * Noise from the licensed premises including noise from patrons or amplified regulated entertainment shall not be audible beyond the boundary of the premises so as not to cause nuisance to nearby residents.
- * A written dispersal policy shall be in place and implemented at the premises to move customers from the premises and the immediate vicinity in such a way so as to cause minimum disturbance or nuisance to neighbours.
- * Clear and legible notices shall be prominently displayed at all exits requesting patrons to respect the needs of local residents and businesses and to leave the vicinity as quickly and quietly as possible.
- * The premises shall operate a taxi ring back service for customers who request a taxi to avoid unnecessary congregating around outside.
- * Levels of music at the premises will always be played at levels that allows patrons to talk in comfort.
- * When regulated entertainment including recorded and amplified music is taking place all doors and windows will be closed save for access and egress.
- * No refuse shall be deposited in any skip, bin or other container of a like nature located in the open air outside of the premises between the hours of 22.30 and 08.00 Monday to Sunday, and any such skip, bin or other container shall not be removed from the premises between those hours.
- * No deliveries shall be taken or dispatched from the premises between the hours of 22.30 and 08.00 hours on any day.

e) The protection of children from harm

- * A refusal register will be kept and endorsed after every refused sale. This is to include over 18s purchasing alcohol and passing it to under 18s (proxy sales).
- * A Challenge 25 policy shall be adopted, implemented and maintained ensuring that all members of staff are trained to refuse to supply to anyone who appears to be under the age of 25 and who is seeking to obtain any age-restricted product unless that person provides credible photographic proof of age evidence. Such credible evidence shall include a photograph of the customer and acceptable form of ID. Examples of acceptable ID are limited to photo card driving licence, passports, military identification or proof of age cards bearing the 'PASS' hologram. No other evidence of age and identity may be accepted.

Section 19 of 21

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
