NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

Operating Schedule

Amaze will be a progressive Bangla Indian Spice Gourmet food venue. It will offer authentic 5 and 7 course Indian meals. The food will be provocative and provide a different type of experience than any other Indian style restaurant in the North East. The premises aims to be thought provoking both in terms of the tastes and visual delight of their food. Food at Amaze will be an education, and customers will know where their food is coming from. The whole premises approach will be as Eco friendly as possible. This will include online menus with orders placed in advance in order to cut down on food waste. The restaurant will be designed to be as sustainable and waste aware as possible. Everything about the premises will focus on delivering a memorable customer experience.

If granted, this will be the third family premises opened. The other two are Turmeric Gold in Coventry, which has traded for 20 years and Jashn in Whickham, which has operated for 10 years.

The operators see this site at Monkseaton as the ideal opportunity for expansion, and a little bit of a departure from their other businesses, as it will operate with a Café /Deli attached to the restaurant. They also have other ambitious plans for the building, including to create a dining school towards the rear of the premises.

If the licence were to be granted, the premises would be permitted to open early for a breakfast and coffee shop style of operation, from the café/deli which would open at 08:00. Their offering would develop into a restaurant, opening up the rest of the premises for lunch and evening meal, with a lounge bar feel into the early evening. Breakfast, lunch and evening menu's will be available. Later on, after 21:00, it is intended that the premises will have the flexibility to develop by offering specialist cocktails delivered by trained mixologists, as well as fine wines and champagne. The last service of meals in the restaurant would be 21:30, with the extended hours allowing sufficient time for a meal, before closing.

The café/deli on the right hand of the premises will focus on fairly typical offerings of hot drinks and snacks, with an Indian twist. For example there will be a range of vegetarian samosa's (including their famous beetroot samosa). There will also be a range of authentic Indian deserts available. There are a total of 18 seated covers in the café/deli. Its core hours will be 08:00 to 18:00. After that time it will be available for hire for small events/gatherings or private dining experiences. It is served by its own toilet facilities, and is spate and distinct from the restaurant, although there is staff access between the two premises. It will trade under the name of Spice Café/Deli.

The restaurant will be authentically Indian with a modern style of décor. The restaurant will offer a total of 70 covers, although 6-10 seats would be in the waiting area, with the rest of the covers split between booth seating and loose tables and chairs. The hours of opening for the restaurant may vary, but typically its hours every day will be 12:00 to 23:30.

Off sales are applied for and will include customers taking home unfinished bottle of wine (and similar), but also more traditional off sales from the café/deli to take home. The premises will also look to develop a deliveries business, and alcohol would form part of that offering for Indian Banquets at home.
