Provide a general description of the premises

For example the type of premises, its general situation and layout and any other information which could be relevant to the licensing objectives. Where your application includes off-supplies of alcohol and you intend to provide a place for consumption of these off-supplies you must include a description of where the place will be and its proximity to the premises.

The premises is a long-established 7-bedroom Georgian guest house on Front Street in Tynemouth village incorporating a traditional tea room / garden. The tea room, garden and coffee lounge are open to the general public for the sale of refreshments. The tea room contains 7 tables with a further 10 tables in the garden. The lounge can accommodate a maximum of 10 people depending on the seating arrangement. Access to the guesthouse and tea room is by the main door which opens directly on to Front Street and also serves as the primary fire exit for both guests staying at the property and tea room customers. There is also a separate fire exit from the garden which leads up an alleyway directly on to Front Street. The lounge is at the front of the property and the tea room is on a lower ground floor (8 steps down) at the rear of the property and this opens out on to the garden. There is a customer WC situated within the tea room and the staff kitchen is at the rear of the property. This includes the usual kitchen appliances but we do not have any deep fat fryers. Guest rooms and our own private quarters (we live on site) are located above the ground floor on several landings.

The tea room doubles up as a breakfast room for guests staying at the property and because of this the tea room only opens after our breakfast service has finished. Similarly, as our main business is a guest house, the tea room would not be open beyond early evening.

Food is prepared in the kitchen and we operate a table service only to both indoor and outdoor areas (this was our established way of working prior to the Covid pandemic). Our intention is to continue trading as a Tea Room but we would like to complement our offering with a premises licence. This would allow us to serve bottles of prosecco or Champagne, a glass of wine or a gin & tonic with our Afternoon Teas and bottles of beer or ales alongside our food offerings. In the Winter months we would anticipate serving hot chocolates with Baileys or similar and mulled wine. We wish to offer the sale of alcoholic beverages as a complement to our food offerings only and not in isolation i.e. we do not anticipate being a place to visit for drinks only as there are plenty of other establishments in the area offering this and we do not want to detract from the main focus of the business as a traditional family-friendly tea room.

From time to time we use our premises for smaller private functions e.g. funeral wakes, anniversary or birthday parties and we would like to be able to supply alcoholic beverages on these occasions too.

If 5,000 or more people are expected to attend the premises at any one time, state the number expected to attend

LICENSING OBJECTIVES

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e)

List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

We have an established team within the business and we will ensure that there are always sufficient competent staff on the premises whenever this is being used for the licensable activity. Staff will be trained in their responsibilities with regard to the sale of alcohol, particularly regarding drunkenness and underage persons. We will keep a record of staff training and refresher courses.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

We have CCTV throughout the public areas of the property and we are currently in the process of having a more modern system installed. Any incidents of a criminal nature will be recorded in a log book and reported to the police with photographic evidence or CCTV footage available.

c) Public safety

Fire safety checks are carried out each week and appropriate measures are in place i.e. smoke detectors, emergency lighting and fire doors etc. Fire exits are clearly marked and waste is stored in a bin store away from public access. The hallway which is the main fire escape route is kept clear of obstructions as is the alleyway leading from the garden. Fire extinguishers and fire alarms are located throughout the building on all floors.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

We will ensure that all customers are asked to leave quietly and to respect our neighbours. We will also display notices to this effect asking customers to be mindful of our neighbours. The alleyway from the garden is only used in emergencies so customers will only enter / leave the building through the front door which will be monitored by CCTV and is also clearly visible to staff in the kitchen. A monitor is also positioned in the kitchen for the use of staff.

e) The protection of children from harm

We will display Challenge 25 posters on the premises. Staff serving alcohol will be trained to ask anyone appearing to be under 25 to produce photographic ID such as a card bearing the PASS hologram, passport or photographic driver's licence. We will train staff on underage sales prevention and will maintain a register of refused sales on the premises.

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
 - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
 - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
 - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
 - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
 - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
 - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
 - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
